

Summer SchoolI. ELIGIBILITY

- A. Maximum load: A student attempting to correct academic failure or loss of credit may remediate a maximum total of 2.0 credits at the high school level or 2 full -year courses at the middle school level in all summer programs (in district or out). Any middle school student failing three or more core area courses is ineligible for summer school credit toward promotion.
- B. Full-year course: A student at the high school level attempting to correct an academic failure or a loss of credit in a full-year course must either have received a passing grade in two marking periods and passed either the mid-year exam or the final exam or have a yearly average of at least 50%. At the middle school level, the student must have passed at least two marking periods or have a yearly average of at least 50%.
- C. Half-year course: A student at the high school level attempting to correct an academic failure or a loss of credit in a half-year course must have received a passing grade in one marking period or have earned a grade of 50% or better as the course average.

II. ATTENDANCE

- A. Absences: No more than two (2) days of absences will be allowed. Loss of credit in the course will result on the third absence.
- B. Absence for illness must be medically corroborated.
- C. Tardies: Three (3) tardies to class will constitute one (1) absence.
- D. Missed Work: All work missed due to absence must be made up.
- E. Vacation Time: No vacation time will be granted during a summer session.

Regulation Approved: 6/24/85

Regulation Revised: 5/19/97, 12/15/97, 04/26/04