

Letter Card Games

Letter Memory Game

- Use 2 sets of letter cards
- Place all cards upside-down on a table
- One player chooses one card to flip over and name the letter. Then that same player chooses another card and names the letter.
- If the two letters match the player gets to keep both cards and gets another turn.
- The game continues until all cards are taken.

I Spy Letter Game

- Place letter cards, letter-side up, on the table
- Player one says "I spy with my little eye letter (names a letter)."
- The next player has to find that letter card. If that player identifies the correct letter-card they get to keep the card.
- The game continues until all cards are gone.

I Spy Letter-Sound Game

- Place letter cards, letter-side up, on the table
- Player one says "I spy with my little eye the letter that makes the sound (says a letter-sound)."
- The next player has to find the letter that makes that sound. If that player identifies the correct letter-card they get to keep the card.
- The game continues until all cards are gone.

Beat the Clock Letter Game

- Place all letter cards in a pile.
- Set a timer for 1 minute.
- Start the timer and have your child name as many letters as they can as quickly as they can.
- At the end of minute, have your child count how many letters they were able to correctly identify.
- Then, play the same game again. This time try to correctly identify more letters than last time.

Beat the Clock Letter-Sound Game

- Place all letter cards in a pile.
- Set a timer for 1 minute.
- Start the timer and have your child name as many letter-sounds as quickly as they can.
- At the end of minute, have your child count how many letter-sounds they were able to correctly identify.
- Then, play the same game again. This time try to correctly identify more letter-sounds than last time.

Letter/Letter-Sound BINGO

- Each player gets a BINGO board
- One person chooses a letter-card from the pile and says the letter (or the letter-sound).
- Each player checks their BINGO board for the letter and places a marker on that letter if they have it.
- Game continues until one BINGO card is filled.
- The player who fills their board first is the winner.
